
Every cell contributes; hexagons summarize density, no random point selection. W0 normals use largest owned WALL face.